We are developing a 'Growth Mindset'

What a pleasure it is to come to work each day at our school. Everywhere I go I see happy, respectful and welcoming students. As you can see from our new vision statement, a major focus is to help our students to become resilient, persistent and confident learners. To support this we are continuing to teach our students how to have a growth mindset. Having a growth mindset means that you are willing to try, willing to accept that mistakes are ok as long as you are doing your very best and that they really are part of the learning process. Each week in our newsletter we share some of the lessons and displays from our Growth Mindset focus. If you use the same words at home with your children this will reinforce these concepts.

I received this email from Willa Herron in Year 4 this week. We are very proud of Willa for taking on this challenge and helping those in need:

Hi Mr Maunder
Its Willa here. I'm sending you this to ask if I can please put the following in the newsletter this week.

"Hi my name is Willa Herron and I'm in year four. Next Sunday I'm doing a challenge called the ration challenge. It is to raise money for refugees in Syria. I will be eating 85g of chick peas, 170g of red lentils, 660g of white rice, 125g of tinned sardines, 300ml of vegetable oil, 400g of flour and about 400g of red kidney beans over a period of seven days. The lady running the challenge emailed me and said I can have a piece of fruit each day because I'm young. Can you please sponsor me at the following link, thank you very much."

Kindergarten Dolphins created beautiful “brain portraits” as part of their learning about growth mindsets.

PBL and Wellbeing Focus

This week students are further exploring how their brain can grow and change when faced with challenges. They know that they can make their brain stronger and achieve tasks through practise, repetition and fixing their mistakes. Students are learning more about “growth mindsets” and what this means for their learning. Roughly speaking, two different mindsets can be said to exist: fixed and growth. Some people possess one, some people the other. And a third group possess a mixture; they might have a growth mindset in one area of life, but a fixed mindset in another. The central beliefs of each mindset are as follows:

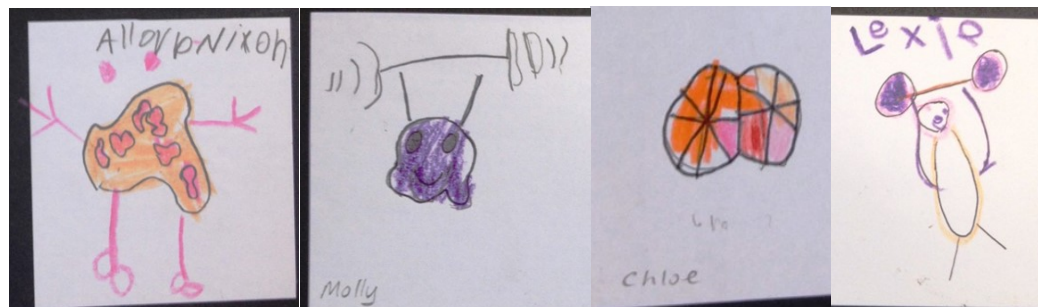

Fixed Mindset

- Intelligence is unchanging.
Leads to a desire to look smart and therefore a tendency to:
- Avoid challenges
 - Give up easily due to obstacles
 - See effort as fruitless

Growth Mindset

- Intelligence can be developed.
Leads to a desire to learn and therefore a tendency to:
- Embrace challenges
 - Persist despite obstacles
 - See effort as a path to mastery

North Coast Cross Country

Three students had amazing success at the North Coast Cross Country last Friday. They have all been selected to represent the North Coast Region at the NSW State Cross Country to be held at Eastern Creek on Friday 21st July. With the threat of impending rain, our 10 year old runners lined up on the start line.

Teal Haigh ran an impressive race. She fought a hard battle throughout resulting in an outstanding 2nd. Daniel Williams blitzed the field with an impressive run from start to finish running 1st. Wilson Baade also excelled with a nail biting finish that saw four runners heading to the finish line together. He held on to run 5th which also saw him qualify.

Congratulations to Daniel, Teal and Wilson on your outstanding results. All of the Nambucca Heads Public School community are proud of you!

Soccer Knockout

This Friday our girls soccer/football team are off to Urunga to play in the next round of the state knockout. With the torrential rain over the weekend we all have our fingers crossed that the fields will be open to play on. Good luck girls. Jada Rogers, Ava Hodnett-Daly, Aaliyah Hodnett-Daly, Christie Leek, Lily Hollister, Zahalia Reedy, Hannah Sharp, Jemma Wilson, Ella Rogers, Lilly Noonan, Luka Barnes, Aziah Steele, Chloe McCarthy. Please make sure you have your notes and money in by Friday.
